Hey Giorgio, first of all; All the best in your future endeavors!

Thank you so much for the always pleasant and often funny collaboration, help and all the talks. When i started at Contorion you were a huge help, especially in your old role as interim manager for Engineering. We were able to solve a lot of topics still affecting us positively until today!

Stay just the way you are! Your future team is already lucky to have you!

— Marek

During my office rounds, I always look over at your desk and am sad to realize every time you're no longer there. I miss your positive attitude, and I hope that someday I'll get to enjoy your tiramisu again ;)

— Lena

It’s not the same coming into the office and not hearing an insult from you first thing.
You are missed already a lot and not being able to walk towards you and "use you" as a sparring partner it's hard!

A presto!!!

— Jaco

Thank you for your efforts.
Keep up the good spirit and all the best for your future endeavors. Hope to see you again.
